

The details make all the difference: Spec's trademark quality and durable design ensure that your Cooper products have a long, productive life.

Wood arms are available in nine standard stains. Stain-to-match at no upcharge.

Polyurethane arms may come in three colors. All arms are replaceable in the field.

KYDEX® arms come in three colors. All arms are replaceable in the field.

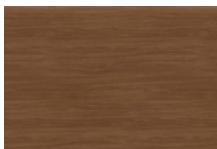

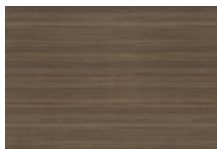

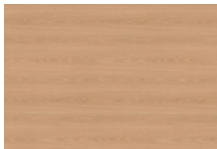

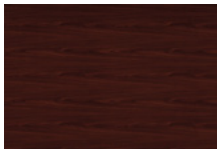

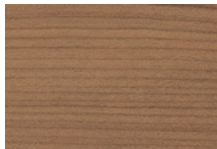

Models with wood frames come standard with steel-threaded glides that are field-replaceable.

Separate seat and back provide exceptional comfort and ease of maintenance.

Wall-saving frame is standard for Huntsville and Midland.

On Bala and Dwight, both wood and polyurethane arms are available in flat or round profiles.

Make It Your Own

With a choice of polyurethane or wood arms, nine standard wood stains (custom stains at no upcharge) and a virtually limitless selection of fabrics, the Cooper Collection is a perfect fit for any environment.

All three polyurethane and KYDEX® colors are available on Bala and Dwight. For Midland and Huntsville, polyurethane arms come in black only.

Metal Finishes

Metal frames can be finished in 76 Spectone colors from our line of powder epoxy coatings, including five textured finishes.

COOPER COLLECTION

Durability Meets Design

Breathe new life into public seating areas with the Cooper Collection. With equal parts style and functionality, Cooper's wood frame gives a softer, less institutional look to high-performance chairs. Choose from four distinctive, award-winning designs—Bala, Dwight, Huntsville and Midland.
